planned by Baltazarini, he had several assistants in its composition. The verses were written by La Chesnaye from Baltazarini's sketches; the music, included here in parts, was composed by Lambert de Beaulieu assisted by Jacques Salmon and other court musicians; and the etchings, with which the book is illustrated, were made from designs by Jacques Patin. Bookplates of Horatio Walpole and Sir Henri Brooke Cobham.

First performed in 1581.
